THE certificate of the West Virginia Slate Land, Title and Real Estate Bureau, as issued by the Secretary of State, was filed yesterday in the Recorder's office. The crossings at Eleventh and Market streets are a disgrace to the city, and an ar-gument in favor of abolishing the present way of not keeping the streets in repair.

Two goings arrived at the Fire Department beadquarters yesterday. One is for the hook and laider house, and the other for the Hope hose. The former will be put in to-day.

SAM VOLTZ, janitor at the Capitol, wants to shaw which the House does not pass the resolution to employ a watchman. He says he sometimes has to stay at the State House half the night on account of one clerk. "Tell em there isn't another Capitol in the country that hasn't a watchman, "Sam says, "If that don't fix 'em !'Il give 'em up."

THERE is an entertainment on the tapis, to be given at an early day in the Opera House, that will, we predict, eclipse in interest anything yet undertaken by home talent. It is to be a musical and literary entertainment, the numbers of the programme being evenly divided between the pupils of the Linley Institute and the Wheeling Female College.

THE HOUSE Judiciary Committee had be-fore it last night the Senate bill prohibiting railsoads from changing the course of a stream so that it would come within less than

He was taken home by friends.

Our cilizens are to be congratulated on the opportunity to hear Mr. Cope read at the Academy of Music this evening. Of him the Nassau, N. H., Telegraph, said recently: "In the star scenes Mr. Cope gave a good idea of the strength of the janguage and dramatic force of the situation, and in the denouement at the block be rose to a whirlwind passion of true eloquence. It was a grand entertainment, an entertainment for a cultived sudience like that with which he was favored, and is enthusiastically mentioned. In a word, Mr. Cope is entitled to recognition as among the first elocutionists of the States and should have liberal patronage wherever he pauses for a night. S. B. Davis, Esq., presided."
